

Pledge to Advance Connecticut (PACT) Appeal Form

Your eligibility for the PACT program was determined based on the eligibility criteria determined under Connecticut Public Act 19-117. Those students who have lost the eligibility to participate have the right to an appeal. All appeals will be reviewed by the PACT Appeals Committee, and decisions will be made in writing to the student with a copy of the decision kept on file with the attending Financial Aid Office. Submission of this appeal does not guarantee readmittance into the PACT Program.

In order to be eligible to complete this form, your FAFSA must be on file at your attending college. Please review your Self-Service Banner account at my.comnet.edu to confirm we have your FAFSA on file.

Submission Instructions

Please submit all appeal documentation together; appeals may be sent to PACTAppeals@ct.edu. Emails must be sent from your college email account, and your message must be encrypted. Information that is not encrypted and/or from personal email accounts will not be reviewed. The PACT Appeals Committee reserves the right to request additional documentation, as needed.

All appeals will be reviewed within 30 days after receipt of all required and supporting documentation. However, response times may vary depending on the volume of appeals at the time of your request. Please do not disregard any college bill due date while awaiting your appeal decision.

Students who wish to appeal the decision of the PACT Appeals Committee shall be reviewed by the CSCU President, or designee. Requests should be made in writing to PACTAppeals@ct.edu.
